STAT

Your letter of 28 May to General Walters has been referred to this office for reply.

We are pleased to learn of your interest in being associated with the Agency and have enclosed a set of our preliminary application forms. Please complete and return these forms to us at your convenience. We will then review your qualifications in light of our current and anticipated vacancies. I should advise you, however, that our employment opportunities are very limited at this time due to reductions in our personnel strength over the past several years.

We appreciate your interest in writing to us, and you may be sure that you will be given every consideration.

Sincerely,

Signed:

F. W. M. Janney
Director of Personnel

Dear Sir;

STAT My father, [redacted] has forwarded my interests in the Central Intelligence Agency to you. Since being an American citizen, I feel safeguarding our freedom and interest's abroad is essential to our national security.

My personal qualifications stem from my interests in politics and economics; being a political science graduate from the University of Utah. My goverment has been involved in many crises, and I feel I should learn more about political affairs, thus my interest in the Agency. My general characteristics are 24 years old, single, enjoy travel, meeting people, studying martial arts, and outdoor enthusiasts.

Trying to sum up a person's goals and interests on paper seems an impossible task without writing a novel. I hope I have expressed my general views and would appreciate anything you can do on my behalf.

Sincerely yours,

STAT

P.S. Could you give my deepest regards to your splendid sister!
